

The CAA has launched an investigation within S.E. MoldATSA

The Civil Aviation Authority extends its sincere condolences to the grieving family and to the colleagues at S.E. MoldATSA. In these difficult moments, we stand in solidarity with all those affected by this painful loss.

At the same time, the Authority has launched an investigation within S.E. MoldATSA, which includes a review of internal procedures related to the organizational climate. We understand the importance of clarifying all circumstances surrounding this tragic case and are committed to ensuring full transparency throughout the entire process. We will provide additional information as soon as it becomes available.