164th Meeting of the Directors General of Civil Aviation of ECAC

The Republic of Moldova is participating today in the 164th Meeting of the Directors General of Civil Aviation of ECAC, represented by the Deputy Director of the Civil Aviation Authority, Mr. Evgheni Kosteţki.
This event brings together European civil aviation leaders and addresses key topics related to safety, regional cooperation, and the future of global aviation. The agenda is structured into open and closed sessions, focusing on highly relevant subjects such as:

- the situation of civil aviation in Ukraine and support strategies for reopening Ukraine's airspace;
- updates on European aviation policies, including the achievements of the Polish EU Presidency and the priorities of the EU Council and the European Commission, particularly the revision of Regulation (EC) No 261/2004 and the promotion of sustainable aviation fuels in air transport;
- flight safety and air traffic management issues, with input from EASA and EUROCONTROL;
- discussions on the future of civil aviation within ICAO and ECAC, especially in the context of preparations for the 42nd ICAO Assembly.

Moldova’s presence at this strategic forum highlights the country’s commitment to promoting European standards, supporting flight safety, and actively contributing to international dialogue in the field of civil aviation.

